TO OUST SCHOOL STREET SQUATTERS

Some Have Been On The Land Since Year 1886

The School street squatters will have to go is the mandate that has issued forth from the Government, and the legal machinery is all ready to set in motion in the event that any of the persons now living on the Government's land do not feel disposed to leave with promptitude.

The Territory owns several pieces of land on School street just Ewa of Lillia. Some of the persons who are now squatting on the land have been there since 1886 and apparently are disposed to think that they have become possessed of a vested right through the length of their squatting. The Government does not take this view of the matter, however, and they have been given until Oct. 4 to vacate.

Governor Frazier thinks that the persons who have been squatting on the land should consider themselves fortunate that they do not have to pay back rent, and there does not seem to be much probability of any of them contesting the right of the Government to oust them.

THE MAUNA KEA sails tomorrow noon for Hilo via Maui ports. She will carry a large list of passengers, presumably for the volcano.

THE NIHAU, arriving from Kau this forenoon, brought a full load of sugar, which she is discharging at her wharf.

In his statement the President signified his approbation of conservation policy as represented by Pinchot and pledged himself to such legislation as shall place the seal of approval of Congress on the conservation policy.

Airship At High Speed Turns Complete Somersault

BERLIN, Sept. 26.—Dashing through the air at express train speed a monoplane turned a complete somersault here today. The crowd watching the tests gazed in spellbound horror as they saw the flying machine take its downward plunges, for it seemed that the daring aviator could not possibly escape with his life. Almost by a miracle the man kept his balance, however, and was unhurt.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 25.—Today Johan Vasora was arrested. He was disguised as a laborer and attempted to board a steamer at Prince Rupert Bay. He made good his escape to Canada, and all track of him was lost until he was run to earth by the Canadian authorities in the act of trying to make his escape to the States.

TERRIBLE WIND STORMS.
